A photograph of an outdoor dining area. In the foreground, a wooden dining table and chairs are arranged on a floor of light-colored, rectangular terracotta tiles. The chairs have striped cushions. The table is set with plates, glasses, and silverware. In the background, there is a white wall with a tiled roofline, a small tree in a planter, and a view of rolling hills under a clear sky. A wooden pergola structure is visible on the left side. The overall atmosphere is bright and airy.
